

Pickands, James. September 22, 1894.

Wrecked on a reef near Eagle River, Michigan, 20 miles from station; broke in two and became a total loss. The ship's company having received orders to proceed to Cleveland, Ohio, the lifesaving crew boarded the wreck, secured and landed their baggage for them. 63 persons on board and saved. USLSS Annual Report 1895.